President & Founder

Mr Richard Chiu

History

Warwick International Hotels (WIH) was founded in 1980 with the purchase of the Warwick Hotel in New York by Richard Chiu, Warwick International Hotels President & Founder. This landmark hotel was built by William Randolph Hearst out of love for the love of his life Marion Davies and her Hollywood friends. Since then, WIH has expanded rapidly establishing a reputation for combining local characteristics with attentive service to its clients in elegant and luxurious settings. There are now 50 Warwick International Hotels and Resorts on 5 continents.

Positioning

Each member hotel of the collection has its identity but all share common qualities dear to the spirit of the Warwick International Hotels collection.

Astonishing locations: each hotel or resort in the network WIH offers guests a superb location, whether at the heart of cities or the most beautiful beaches, stay for business or pleasure

Hotels belong to 2 distinct categories: City hotels or Resorts & Spas

An atmosphere reflecting the local culture: every hotel in the WIH collection embodies the spirit of the places where it is located. If Warwick International Hotels is expanding its network throughout the world, the Group is committed to be preserved as the culture of the environment in which the hotel operates.

Unforgettable suites: each hotel in the Warwick collection features elegant suites, signature of the spirit of the brand, setting of ultimate comfort.

Fine dining: Each Hotel and Resort is cherishing local traditions. Renowned restaurants can be found at each location and WIH it taking care of carrying the culinary traditions.

Development

WIH collection grows through 3 models: management contract, affiliation, and purchase or construction of hotels that WIH also operate. Warwick International Hotels offer can adapt to all situations in all markets and all stakeholders. The mode of affiliation is an original approach that suits the independent hotels as they retain their autonomy and identity, while benefiting from technological equipment and know-how in marketing and distribution.
